

SOCIETY

CONTINUED FROM PAGE TWO.

ROCKVILLE.

The Rockville Inquiry Club held an open meeting in the Sunday School room of the Methodist Church here Monday evening with a large attendance. Mrs. Abbe G. Baker, of Washington, talked on "White House Clubs and their remarks being illustrated by lantern slides. Before the meeting members of the club and a few others were guests of Mrs. Otis M. Linthicum at a buffet luncheon. Miss Beale Banks Woodward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Woodward, of Coleville, this county, and Mr. Oliver M. Duval, of Burtonville, were married Friday morning at Spencerville. The Rev. George Corp, pastor of the Spencerville Free Methodist Church, officiated at his home. A few relatives and friends were present. Immediately afterward the young couple left for a week's trip.

Mr. Wooten E. Young and family, of Washington, recently visited relatives at Damascus.

Mrs. William P. Hill, wife of Dr. Hill, United States Army, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hecchia Trail, near Rockville. She will soon sail for England to visit relatives of her husband. Dr. Hill is now stationed at El Paso, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnett Colner have returned from their honeymoon trip and are temporarily making their home with Mrs. Colner's father, William Scherrer, near Montrose.

Miss Belle Burroughs, of Brookville, and Mr. William Brown Nicholson, of the same locality, were married in Rockville Thursday afternoon by Rev. Samuel R. White, of the Baptist Church, at the home of the minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard L. Nicholson, Jr., and children, of Washington, are occupying their country home near Rockville. Miss Helen S. Packard, daughter of the late Rev. Thomas J. Packard, for a long time rector of Christ Episcopal Church here, was graduated from the Johns Hopkins Hospital Training School for Nurses during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Dawson Williams, who are on their honeymoon trip, will live in Rockville.

Miss Naomi Garrett, of Washington, recently visited relatives in Rockville.

Rev. Forrest J. Pretzmann, chaplain of the House, will deliver the address at the annual Decoration Day exercises at the Rockville Union Cemetery.

Miss Ruby Robertson, of this town, will be among this year's graduates of Western Maryland College.

The Bethesda Woman's Club held an interesting open meeting at the home of Mrs. E. S. Wilson this week. Mrs. Eleanor Cronin presided, and Mrs. George V. Chandler, of Lincoln, gave a talk on "Good Roads." Refreshments were served.

Masonic Affairs.

Calendar.
LODGE.
May 25—Dawson, No. 1, E. A.; Standard, No. 2, E. A.
May 26—Federal, No. 1, M. M.; Anson, No. 1, E. A.; Thoma, No. 2, E. A.
May 27—Harmon, No. 1, E. A.; F. G.; 729 N. W., F. G.; school of instruction.
May 28—The New Jerusalem, No. 1, M. M.; George C. Welling, No. 2, Temple-Score, No. 2, M. M.
May 29—St. John's, No. 1, special M. M.
ROYAL ARCH CHAPTERS.
May 25—Mount Hope, No. 7, business; Potomac, No. 4, E. A.; Anson, No. 12.
May 26—Mount Hope, No. 7, business; Potomac, No. 4, E. A.; Anson, No. 12.
May 27—Mount Pleasant, No. 13; Columbia, No. 1, special E. A.
May 28—Washington, No. 1, E. A.
KNIGHTS TEMPLAR COMMANDERIES.
May 26—De Molay Mounted, No. 4.
May 27—Washington, No. 1.
ANCIENT AND ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE.
May 26—Eastern Star Chapter of Kadon, No. 1.
EASTERN STAR CHAPTERS.
May 25—Temple, No. 13; Columbia, No. 15.
May 26—Eliot, No. 2; Bethesda, No. 7; Friendship, No. 17.

MRS. CHARLES HOFFMAN.

—Photo by Harris-Exing.

Sister of Mrs. Timothy T. Ansberry, noted as the handsomest woman in Congressional society, and who shares with her sister undisputed claim to beauty. Mrs. Hoffman has been the guest of Representative and Mrs. Ansberry.

May 25—Naomi, No. 3; Brookland, No. 11.
May 26—William F. Hunt, No. 14.

Washington Chapter to Confer R. A. Degree.

At the next convocation of Washington Chapter, No. 2, on Thursday evening, the royal arch degree will be conferred by the regular line of officers and there is no doubt but that a good degree will be exemplified by them, with High Priest Pyrah at the head of the line and Comp. Lehrer taking the part of principal scribe.

A special effort is being made by all the officers for this occasion and an invitation is extended to all members of the Capital Chapter.

Knights Templar Obeys Ascension Day.

The annual Ascension Day service was observed last Thursday evening by the five commanderies of local Knights Templar and one commandery from Alexandria, Va. The Sir Knights, resplendent in their full uniform, paraded down Pennsylvania avenue, through the Capitol grounds, and out East Capitol street to the Metropolitan Baptist Church, Sixth and A streets northeast, where the ceremonies were conducted.

The sermon, on "The Ascension of Jesus," was preached by Rev. John Compton Ball, pastor of the Metropolitan Church. He spoke of the temptations of the world and of the battles to be fought in living a clean life and the necessity of man modeling his life after that of the Saviour. The church was crowded to the doors and beyond. Special anthems were sung, selected to tell the story of the Crucifixion from the triumphal entry of Jesus into Jerusalem to His Ascension.

The soloists were Mrs. J. M. Brooks, Mrs. Gilbert A. Clark, Dr. Bruce W. Hoofnagle, Miss Ethelyn Calloway, Miss Nellie Barber, and Mrs. J. H. Tatzpaugh. Gilbert A. Clark directed the music and Miss Calloway played the organ.

An impressive part of the service was the saying, in unison, of the Apostle's Creed by the Knights Templar, standing with drawn and presented swords. Rev. Paul R. Hickok, grand prelate of Grand Commandery, made the opening prayer. The service was opened with the singing of a short hymn composed by the Rev. Dr. Ball.

Following the service the knights marched to the Masonic Temple and disbanded. Old Dominion Commandery, of Alexandria, joined with the local orders for the first time in this commemorative service.

Each commandery was headed by its commander and prelate, as follows: Right Eminent Grand Commander Sir Charles T. Lindsey, Excellent Grand Prelate Rev. Sir Paul R. Hickok, Washington Commandery, No. 1—Sir James T. Gibbs, commander; Rev. Sir Paul R. Hickok, prelate.

Columbia Commandery, No. 2—Sir Seaton W. Trueman, commander; Sir James H. McIntosh, prelate.
Potomac Commandery, No. 3—Sir Ernest C. Berger, commander; Rev. Sir Luther H. Waring, prelate.
De Molay Commandery, No. 4—Sir Warren W. Biggs, commander; Rev. Sir William Hart Dexter, prelate.
Orient Commandery, No. 5—Sir Guy M. Neely, commander; Sir Richard P. Evans, prelate.

Friendship Chapter to Confer Degrees.

Friendship Chapter, No. 17, O. E. S., will hold its regular meeting in Masonic Temple, Tenth and D streets, Tuesday, May 26, at 7:30 p. m. The degrees will be conferred on a number of candidates. The formal degree and drill will take place after the regular degrees have been conferred. The grand matron and a number of grand officers and visitors are expected, and Eastern Star members are cordially invited.

Areme Chapter Receives Visitors.

There was a large attendance of members and visitors at Areme Chapter, O. E. S., Wednesday night. Several new members were received and the visitors from foreign jurisdictions complimented the chapter very highly on the way in which the work was exemplified. Mr. Smith, grand patron of a chapter in Chelsea, Mass., was called on and his address was most cordial.

Mrs. Jessie Bradley, grand Adah, and matron of Cathedral Chapter, No. 4, together with many visiting members from other chapters, were present.

Mr. Ben W. Murch, grand sentinel, addressed the chapter and complimented the officers on the fine rendition of their work.

To close the evening all present were invited to the banquet room, where they were served with a bountiful supply of strawberries and ice cream.

"Grotto" Booklets Received.
Among the many beautiful and interesting souvenir programs of the various grottoes of the Velled Prophets of the Enchanted Realm, announcing their route and the attractions for their annual pilgrimage to the Supreme Council session, received by the local officials of Kallipolis Grotto, is that of Zem Zem Grotto, No. 16, of Jersey City, N. J.

This booklet outlines a trip lasting five days, while the regular session of the council lasts only two days, June 3 and 10. Their trip includes Washington as one of the principal attractions en route, and the local "Prophets" will be on hand to give the visitors a royal welcome.

Doings of the Odd Fellows.

Calendar.
SUBORDINATE LODGES.
May 25—Eaton, No. 11; Covenant, No. 13, and Beacon, No. 18, business; Langdon, No. 28, degree.
May 26—Washington, No. 6, degree; Golden Rule, No. 22, business; Amity, No. 2, degree.
May 27—Eastern, No. 7, and Federal City, No. 26, business; Harmony, No. 9, and Friendship, No. 12, degree.
May 28—Columbia, No. 16, degree; Excelsior, No. 17, and Salem, No. 22, business.
May 29—Central, No. 1, and Metropolitan, No. 14, business; Phoenix, No. 24, degree.

ENCAMPMENTS.
May 26—Fred D. Stuart, No. 1, degree.
May 27—Columbia, No. 1, degree.

REBEKAH LODGES.
May 25—Eaton, No. 1, degree.

PATRIARCHAL MILITANT.
May 26—Canton Washington, No. 1, social and drill.

Date Set for Memorial Exercises.

The committee on memorial day exercises held an interesting session last Wednesday evening in the blue room,

Odd Fellows' Hall. Reports were received from nearly all of the lodges and encampments, giving the names of deceased members for the use of the committee, and the chairman, Grand Warden William J. Hope, requested that those lodges which had not supplied the desired data do so by next Wednesday evening, when the committee will meet again to complete arrangements. It is planned to have the exercises materially changed in many respects from those of preceding years, and it is hoped the membership will bear in mind the date for holding the exercises in the auditorium of Odd Fellows' Hall, Sunday evening, June 14, and make no engagement that will prevent their being present on that occasion.

Washington Lodge Receives Guests.

A large delegation of the members of Federal City Lodge, No. 23, paid a fraternal visit to Washington Lodge, No. 6, Tuesday evening and met with a very cordial reception. Remarks were made by Past Grand Master John H. Wood, a member of the visiting lodge, and several other visiting members, also by Grand Master Frank J. Rapp and Grand Warden William J. Hope. The evening closed with the serving of refreshments and a smoker.

Harmony Lodge Confers First Degree.

Harmony Lodge, No. 9, held an interesting session Wednesday evening and conferred the first degree. Next Wednesday evening the third degree will be conferred, and all members of the order are cordially invited to be present.

Many Candidates to Receive Degrees in Columbia Lodge.

Thursday evening Columbia Lodge, No. 16, held one of its usually well attended sessions, and conferred the first degree. This lodge has degree work sufficient to keep it busy well into the warm weather, and will be pleased to have members of sister lodges present each Thursday evening.

Anniversary Committee Closes Its Affairs.

The committee on anniversary of the order met in final session Wednesday evening, received the report of the auditing committee, accepted same, and voted to return prorata to each contributing body the balance left in the hands of the treasurer, after all bills have been paid.

B. P. O. Elks.

The regular meeting of Washington Lodge, No. 15, B. P. O. Elks, was held on Wednesday evening.

The exalted ruler appointed a committee for a large class of candidates who will be initiated at the first meeting night in June. In connection with the initiation, the chairman of the board of stewards is arranging one of his famous menus, and a large attendance is anticipated.

Brother Samuel Richards, as chairman of the sick committee, reported members on the sick list in a much improved condition, and was very glad to advise the lodge that Brother Kronheim, who had been confined to Georgetown Hospital for quite a time, is again at his home.

Brother Gamble, of Tacoma, Washington Lodge, was present and gave a very interesting talk, especially in regard to Christmas Day affairs as given by the lodge.

The oyster committee met on Friday night to make arrangements for a crab feast to be given on the occasion of the opening of the roof garden. This affair will be held on June 5, for the members and ladies.

During the coming week the orphans' outing committee will meet and formulate plans for the various committees to handle the annual excursion given for the orphans of Washington and Alexandria. From the present enthusiasm shown by the members, it is believed that the excursion promises to be a very successful outing.

Woodmen of the World.

In compliance with their annual custom the Woodmen of the World will hold a joint memorial service on Sunday, June 7, at 11 a. m. at the Washington, Fourth street southeast, near E. at 7:30 p. m. sharp. The Rev. Dr. W. A. Melvin will preach the memorial sermon. It is hoped that all sovereigns and their friends will attend, this is in memory of those sovereigns who have answered the last roll call during the past year.

Oak Camp after its regular business meeting last week adjourned in order to enjoy a smoker with twelve new members who had been just admitted to the order.

Elm Camp on May 24 will unveil the monument of George W. Sunday, at Rock Creek Cemetery. Hon. Morris Sheppard will make the address for the occasion.

Woodmen of America.

West End Camp, No. 1268, Modern Woodmen of America, were the hosts to the officers and degree staff of A. R. Talbot Camp on Monday evening. The latter camp having charge of the initiation and degree work. Three candidates were initiated and the degree was conferred. Following the degree work the drill team gave an exhibition drill, under the direction of Capt. Hamer. An illustrated lecture pertaining to the degree was delivered by District Deputy Millard. A lunch was served at the close of the meeting.

Three candidates were adopted in full ritualistic form by A. R. Talbot Camp at their session of Thursday evening, and several applications were received. Adviser Dobrowski, presiding during the absence of the council. The chairman of the excursion committee, reported that several camps had accepted the invitation to join with Talbot Camp.

Daughters of America Notes.

Mount Vernon Council, No. 18, held a very interesting meeting last Monday night, with a good attendance. This council is making preparations for a general debate for a later meeting, which is arousing much interest. This council paid a high tribute to the marines and soldiers whose lives were lost in Mexico.

Old Glory Council, No. 12, held its regular meeting last Monday evening at 315 Pennsylvania avenue southeast, with a good attendance. Independent Council, No. 2, came to the meeting to pay a fraternal visit, which was made a pleasant one for all who were present. This council had the honor of initiating two candidates in a creditable manner. Refreshments were served.

Under the direction of Mr. J. Harry Howell, chairman of the entertainment and dance committee, an entertainment was given under the auspices of the Daughters of America of the District of Columbia last week. The entertainment met with great success, and features of the evening were given by the "Dumpty" and Prof. Horton, the handclap and lockless man. Many other features were presented which were enjoyed, after which a dance was held. Refreshments were served.

Missah Council, No. 3, held a very interesting meeting in its hall, 1073 Thirty-first street northwest, last Friday evening, with a very good attendance. Mr. Harry B. Stow, of Victory Council, No. 7, was present and delivered an interesting address. The monthly drill was held under the direction of Capt. Edgar C. Blackman, who received much encouragement for the manner in which his team is doing its work.

Either Council, No. 2, at its meeting Thursday evening, held at the Masonic Hall, Tenth and D streets, received five applications for membership. This council has between ten and fifteen candidates to initiate at its next meeting.

Mayflower Council, No. 11, held a very interesting house-warming meeting on Thursday evening at its new home, in the Moore Hall, near Seventh street, in G street northwest.

Victory Council, No. 7, is preparing to give one of its old-fashioned colonial dances at its next meeting on Thursday evening.

Red Men's Affairs.

Sioux Tribe met in its wigwam Thursday night. Brother Stroebel, who lives in Alexandria, was reported ill, but able to see any of the members of the fraternity. Brother Bunch spoke about the attendance, which was the best the tribe has had in the past six weeks. Brother Bunch also spoke about the increase in membership of the entire reservation since the January 1, and stated that he expected all records to be broken. Brother Spaulding has taken charge of the glue club, which will be known as "Sioux Glue Club," and stated that the club will be ready by the beginning of next fall to give entertainments which will be worth the attention of every brother in the reservation. Brother Ordoroff, Carnall, and Heidenheimer spoke about the "Hay Loft," and suggestions were made to postpone the first meeting until the latter part of August or the first part of September in order to avoid the heat of the months. Brother Heidenheimer contemplated visiting Brother Sheridan, at Charlottesville, Va. Electric fans have been loaned to make the brothers as comfortable as possible. Brother Limbach told the tribe of the great benefits the Improved Order of Red Men derived from the "class night" held the early part of this month.

The degree team had its first practice and made a good showing, and Instructor Limbach seems well pleased with the work the boys are doing. All members of the reservation are invited to be present at the meetings of Sioux Tribe in its wigwam, Sixth and G streets northwest.

White Eagle Tribe held a very interesting meeting Wednesday night at Pythian Temple. Brother J. G. Z. presented the tribe a beautiful banner bearing a hand-painted Indian chief's head. This banner will be highly prized by the tribe and will be displayed in the hall with other trophies. The grand sachem, Brother Gartrell, accepted the gift on behalf of the tribe. Remarks were made by J. E. Holmes, of Seneca Tribe, press representative of the Great Council from Logan Tribe.

Osage Tribe held its regular meeting Monday at Society Temple, Fifth and G streets northwest. Interesting remarks were made by Past Grand Sachem Winnie S. Whitman and others.

Oceola Tribe, No. 19, of Tennyaltown, held a little class of its own by initiating three new members in its hall at old Masonic Hall, in Tennyaltown, D. C. After the meeting a social hour was enjoyed by all present.

Idaho Tribe held its session on Tuesday night at Northern Temple, Twelfth and H streets northeast. Past Great Sachem Garner gave a good talk.

A true fraternal spirit was shown at Logan Tribe last Thursday night when it met at Wisconsin avenue and N streets northwest. A brother told of the time when Gen. Alonzo D. Shaw, of 329 L street northwest, was a member of old Tuscarora Tribe, and kept the above tribe alive for several years at his own expense, and would not let the charter go under. The brothers of Logan Tribe would not let this brother go unfortunely when he died last week, and sent him a beautiful floral offering on behalf of Logan Tribe for the work he did for the Red Men of the District. A request was received from Red Wing Tribe for Logan Tribe's degree team to confer the adoption and the warrior's degrees on several candidates, and was acted upon favorably. The degree work will be conferred on Thursday night, May 28, which is also "Haymakers' night."

At Grand Army Hall Red Wing Tribe, No. 28, held its regular meeting last week, which was well attended by the newly made brothers of the class of May 12.

The keeper of wampum, W. H. Sardo, attended after a long absence, due to sickness of himself and family. Red Wing Tribe also has requested that the tribe ask Logan Tribe to confer, at their own hall, on Thursday night, May 28, the first and second degrees on a few candidates for them, and also made the same request of Minnetonka Tribe, of Anacostia, to confer the chief's degree in Minnetonka Tribe's hall on Friday, May 29.

A large meeting was held by Minnetonka Tribe, No. 14, last Friday night, at Masonic Hall, Anacostia, D. C. The new members of the class of May 12 attended in large numbers, and were greeted by Past Great Sachem White on behalf of the tribe. Minnetonka Tribe is fast gaining new members and has a great many bustling and enterprising members.

The representative of the Great Council, Brother H. Tibbitt, spoke to the new members on "Fraternalism."

Seneca Tribe, No. 11, held its regular session at Bank Building last Friday and conferred the three degrees on one of their candidates who failed to appear at the big class of May 12.

The dispensation for the combining of Seneca Tribe, to be forwarded to the great sachem, those present were the press representative of the Great Council, Sachem J. C. Himmelman, of Saltese Tribe, and Brother Thornberg, of Logan Tribe.

INITIATE 32 MEMBERS.

Thirty-two new members have just been initiated by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Knights of St. John. This is the largest number ever initiated at one time by any district auxiliary, it is stated. The officers are: President, Mrs. Mary E. Reilly; first vice president, Mrs. Margaret Burns; second vice president, Mrs. Emma Campbell; recording secretary, Mrs. Ella Richardson; financial secretary, Mrs. Mary West; treasurer, Mrs. Anna Rico; messenger, Mrs. Winifred Corridon; sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. Mary Manserv; guard, H. Johanna Reese.

Knights of Columbus.

Past Deputy Harrington Addressed Council.

Carroll Council held a most interesting meeting last Tuesday evening. Grand Knight William J. McGee presiding, and a large attendance of members present. Several matters which have engaged the attention of the members for the past few months came up for discussion, but no definite action was taken with the exception of the appointment of a committee to report to the council at its second meeting in June. State Deputy Edward P. Harrington addressed the

KNEESSI'S Trunks and Bags 425 Seventh Street

Odd Sizes of Trunks To Be Closed Out At 1-4 to 1-3 Off

We have a number of odd sizes with perhaps one or two in each style of Wardrobe, Dress, Steamer, Hat, and Bureau Trunks. As we need the space, we are going to close out this lot at a special reduction ranging from 25 to 33 1-3 per cent. This is an unusual trunk opportunity because it comes right at the beginning of the vacation season. Come in and look them over. You may find just what you want and the saving will handsomely repay you for the effort.

These Prices Speak for themselves:

$35 Wardrobe	$27.00
$28 Wardrobe	$22.40
$20 Bureau Trunk	$14.85
$15 Trunks	$12.00
$12 Trunks	$8.75
$8 Trunks	$6.40

These few items will give you a slight idea of the money-saving opportunities at this sale. The lot embraces many more styles and each one bears an equally deep cut.

Trunk Repairing a Specialty.

KNEESSI'S, 425 7th Street N. W.
PHONE MAIN 2000.

council, thanking the officers and the members for the loyal support accorded him by the council during the past three years, while he occupied the position of State deputy. After the business session had been concluded, the lecturer, Joseph J. Degnan, offered a very attractive program for the entertainment of the members.

State Deputy Normoyle Receives Handsome Gift.

The meeting of Spalding Council held on Thursday evening under the direction of Grand Knight F. J. P. Cleary was very largely attended, and the matters presented were the objects of much discussion among the members. A beautiful gold watch was presented to Past Grand Knight William P. Normoyle, the presentation speech on behalf of the council being made by Grand Knight Cleary, to which Mr. Normoyle responded, thanking the council for the evidence of their appreciation of his services and of the many expressions of confidence of which he had been the recipient. State Deputy Harrington, in making a final address to the council as State deputy, spoke in appreciation of the great assistance which had been given to him by Mr. Normoyle, who has served under him as district deputy during his entire three terms, and who was to succeed him on June 1 as State deputy. Dr. J. Rozier Biggs presided at the social session as the lecturer of the council, and an interesting program, which included musical selections by Maurice Fitzgerald and Richard Hart, concluding with a country store, was given.

Washington and Carroll Councils Join in Degree.

The honors of the first and second degrees were conferred upon a large class of candidates from Washington and Carroll Councils on Friday evening. The first degree was conferred by Grand Knight William J. McGee, of Carroll Council, assisted by the officers of that council, while the second degree was in charge of Leo A. Rover, grand knight of Washington Council, assisted by State Deputy E. P. Harrington and State Warden Redmond De Vane, with John F. Burns, of Keane Council, and the officers of Washington Council. The major degree will be exemplified this afternoon to a large class of candidates from Washington and Carroll Councils.

Potomac Council will hold its regular meeting on Monday evening.

Third Grand Knight Meeting Announced.

An interesting meeting of Washington Council will be held on Tuesday evening, it being the third of the series of grand knights' meetings. After the regular business meeting is concluded, Grand Knight Rover will turn the direction of affairs over to Dr. Henry J. Croson, who was the third grand knight of Washington Council and a former State deputy.

Keane Council will hold its regular meeting on Thursday evening.

Local Team to Confer Degree in Maryland.

A large number of members are preparing to participate in the ceremonies attendant upon the dedication of the new home of the Knights of Columbus at Cumberland, Md., during the latter part of the coming week. The fourth degree will be exemplified under the direction of Charles W. Darr, master of the fourth degree, at Cumberland on next Saturday afternoon, Memorial Day. The exemplification will be given by the local team, comprising Past State Deputy E. P. Sheehy, State Deputy E. P. Harrington, Rev. Dr. G. A. Dougherty, Dr. W. B. Daly, Harry Hegarty, D. A. Edwards, and Thomas J. Trodden. The third degree will be exemplified by Hon. D. J. Griffin on May 31.

Knights of the Maccabees.

Calendar.

May 25—National Tent, No. 1, Old Masonic Temple; Mount Vernon Tent, No. 4, Northeast Temple; Anacostia Tent, No. 7, Masonic Hall, Anacostia; May 26—Brightwood Tent, No. 5, McCabe Hall, Brightwood.
May 27—Golden Rule Tent, No. 3, hall, at 419 Tenth street northwest.
May 28—District Tent, No. 8, hall, Four and a Half and G streets northwest.

Mr. Thomas L. Smith has been appointed a local tent deputy for Metropolitan Tent, No. 12, and gives the assurance that he will exemplify this afternoon to

CONTINUED ON PAGE FOUR.

Kafka's F at Tenth Street Adjoining St. Patrick's Church

The Day for Reductions in Our Children's Department Has Arrived. We Announce for Monday:

- Infants' Handmade Dresses, long or short, now 79c
- Infants' and Children's Night Drawers and Night Shirts—nainsook 44c
- Rompers, white and colors 25c
- Rompers and Creepers 47c
- Kiddies' Dresses, 2 to 6 years 44c
- Black and White Check Coats, light-weight for cool days, 2 to 6 years 2.95
- Hats reduced - $1, $1.95, $2.95, $3.50
- Girls' White Dresses, 6 to 14 years, reduced to 5.00
- Dainty Flowered Voile Dresses, junior sizes 5.00

Kafka's, F at 10th St.

E. P. TAYLOR

709 G Street N. W.

The Furniture Man, Where You Can Buy High-grade Furniture at About One-half.

WE SELL YOUR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS—ESTABLISHED 15 YEARS

We have lately sold complete furnishings for the homes of many couples who are to be married in June.

Our reputation for reliability and the help we offer young people is very attractive to those who believe in buying good qualities when it is made possible for them to do so.

Good furniture is always an economical investment. It insures you against further expense for years to come.

We enable you to afford the class of furnishings that make your home comfortable and attractive right from the beginning of married life.

Credit accommodation is gladly extended, and terms will be arranged in accordance with your individual circumstances.

Peter Grogan and Sons Co.,
817-823 7th St.